"It was beautiful, I'll remember this forever"

— Cameron Seller, Murphys Calif.

Greetings,

I have flown over much of North America during the last 20 years, and no place I have been, including Denali Park Alaska, has the pure charm and aesthetic appeal of Yosemite. The Sierra is called the "Range of Light" and it is without contest the most varied and intrinsically beautiful range of mountains anywhere in the world.

Each person I have flown on a Yosemite Tour has expressed feelings of awe and inspiration at being able to take in so much in such a concentrated amount of time. It gives me great pleasure to be able to offer such a wonderful and powerful experience to you through the magic of wings.

Sincerely,
Hart B. Drobish

The Yosemite Tour $169 Per Person*

Our aerial tour of Yosemite is truly a special experience; we offer you a perspective on Yosemite National Park that is best described as "awesome". From our aerial vantage point the vertical relief of Yosemite and the sheer size of the mountains is captivating. We enter Yosemite Park at the West boundary over the Merced River. Your pilot provides a narrated tour of the natural history and points out the familiar landmarks of Yosemite Valley; El Capitan, Bridalveil Falls, Glacier point, Yosemite, Vernal, Nevada and Illilouette Falls, Half Dome and many other points not so well known. Your tour continues up over Clouds Rest, Cathedral Peak and on to Tuolumne Meadows then up the Lyell fork of the Tuolumne river to its origin, Lyell Glacier. You'll look down the Sierra Eastside to Mono Lake and Tioga Pass and then fly down the Grand Canyon of the Tuolumne river. Our tour leaves the park over Hetch Hetchy lake. We recommend you bring your camera with extra film, as this tour is especially photogenic.

" My first view of the High Sierra, first view looking down into Yosemite, the death song of Yosemite Creek, and its flight over the vast cliff, each one of these is of itself enough for a great lifelong landscape fortune—a most memorable day of days."

We have chosen the aircraft we fly for 3 reasons; they are well suited to the mountains, have excellent safety records, and have high wings which provide an unobstructed view of the scenery. Cabins are heated and comfortable. Pressurized cabins are not available on all planes, however pressurized aircraft may be available for an additional fee, ask us at the time you book your trip.
